

Time travel
between the Edo period and today

Yatsuyamaguchi

Parade starts here

Oiran Dochu procession appearance
(16:00 at Yatsuyamaguchi)
Departure 16:30

28th

Shinagawa Shukuba Festival

第二十八回
支宿場
しほがわ

To Shinagawa Sta.

Kita-Shinagawa Sta.

Keikyū Line

Shimbamba Sta.

Shinagawa-jinja Shrine

Seiseki Park
Information

Yamate-dori
Ave.

Meguro River

Kyu-Tokaido St.

Edo costume procession
12:00 at Yatsuyamaguchi

Saturday,
September 29, 2018

- Oiran procession appearance (16:00 at Yatsuyamaguchi)
- Chindon'ya (musical advertising performers)
- Kitabamba Yose (traditional comic story telling theater)
- Foods & other products and live performances in Seiseki and Kitahama Parks

Oiran Dochu procession Ovari Kitabamba Yose (traditional comic story telling theater)
Rakugo Toppisho

Sunday,
September 30, 2018

- Edo costume procession between Yatsuyama and Honsenji Temple
- Honsenji Temple fire walk ritual
- Morishige school rifle shooting demonstration
- Local foods & products and live performances in Seiseki Park
- Foods from famous hotels & various countries and live performances in Kitahama Park

Delicious foods & products in Seiseki Park (2017)

Inquiries:
<http://www.shinagawa-shukuba-matsuri.com>

Shinagawa City
International Affairs
03-5742-6691
Monday through Friday 8:30-17:15

Organized by:

Kitashinagawa Honorit Store Society
Kitashinagawa Shopping Street Association
Keiyu Shimbamba Shopping Street Association
Aomono-yokocho Shopping Street Association

Supported by:

Shinagawa City, Shinagawa Police Station, Shinagawa Fire Station,
Shinagawa Shukuba-dori Minami-kai, Shinagawa Traffic Safety Association,
Shinagawa Tourism Association, Kyu-Tokaido Shinagawa-shuku Area Community Council,
The Sankei Shimmun, Rikokai, Warehouse TERRADA, Shinagawa Prince Hotel, Tokyo Marriott Hotel, Dai-ichi Hotel Tokyo Seaiot, Pania-Ocean Construction Co., Ltd.

Aomono-yokocho Sta.

Parade finishes here

Honsenji Temple